SAFETY AND PROFIT.

If you are engaged in any pursuit which gives you an income which is dependent in any degree on the work you do with your hand or brain, then you need life assurance to protect your family, in case your premature death should cut this income off.

But if you can secure this protection for, say, 20 years, and then need money for your own use rather than assurance for your family, or if you have by that time become independent, through the accumulation of a capital, will it not be desirable to have your assurance on a plan which will give you a large cash return if you wish to give up your policy?

The Equitable's new Free Tontine Policy supplies both needs.

London, 2nd—The English papers criticise severely Germany's fresh armaments. The Daily News says that the course of the German Government does enormous injury to all Europe, as it forces other nations into an outlay they would gladly avoid.

It adds that Emperor William and the men who govern Germany do not appear to see the danger of Socialism and Anarchism, which will soon shake the foundations of military institutions.

The advance of the Soudanese on Suakim has imparted a serious aspect to Egyptian affairs, and will certainly tend to postpone the evacuation of the country by England.

The Anarchist Francois will be handed over to the French authorities. The Anarchist agitation has subsided; but precautions have, nevertheless, been taken.

A British steamer has been lost at the mouth of the Elbe, with 25 passengers.

A Bill is being prepared to prevent the interference of the Catholic Clergy at elections. The abuses at the South Meath election have led to this measure.

Paris, 2nd—Casimir Perier has been entrusted with the formation of a new Cabinet. This has caused surprise, as the apparent wish of President Carnot to keep men of greater prestige and influence aloof from the Government is not explainable.

Ex-Minister Guyot's refusal to attend a meeting of working men is greatly praised. He says that the bettering of the condition of the working classes does not depend on hostile demonstrations and threats of outrage, but on an understanding between employers and employed.

Berlin, 2nd—The official organs say there is a majority in favour of the Military Bill.

Madrid, 2nd—The crisis threatens to spread. The Liberal papers call on the Conservatives to abandon office, and warn the Queen Regent of the dangers ahead.

A petard exploded last night at the Post Office, but did no damage.

Cairo, 2nd—The situation is getting worse, and the Dervishes show hostile intentions.

New York, 2nd—Jay Gould is dead.

Rome, 2nd—The Pope is ill.

Munich, 2nd—Prince Karl has reappeared.

Liege, 2nd—The miners on strike raised a riot to-day, and several of them were wounded by the police in restoring order.

(Per Havas Agency.)

Paris, 2nd—The Ministerial crisis continues. Brisson has declared to President Carnot that, in view of the difficulties he meets with he abandons the task of trying to form a Cabinet.

Casimir Perier has accepted the task of forming a Cabinet.

New York, 2nd—Jay Gould the millionaire has just died.

Madrid, 2nd—Messrs Peña Ranuzo and Peñalver have been named Governor and Mayor of this city.

(To the "Prensa".)

Paris, 1st.—President Carnot wishes to probe the Panama Canal scandal to the very bottom.

Some of Baron Reinack's papers have disappeared It is believed they would have shewn that much money spent apparently on the Panama Canal was for his private expenses.

Beaurepaire, Attorney-General, refuses to resign and has entered a solemn protest against the course taken by Parliament.

It has been proved that Baron Reinach gave away 3,900,000 francs to 27 newspapers. The Company gave him 9 millions of francs, and he spent 4 in advertizements.

London, 1st—The Standard denounces Rothschild's silver plan as quite impracticable. In financial circles the Conference is already looked on as a complete "fiasco".

The Times says the great rise in cotton is purely speculative.

Paris, 1st.—The wholesale bribery of the Press in the Panama affair has caused great indignation, and there is a cry that the papers involved must be made to return the money to the Canal victims. The circulation of all the guilty papers has fallen off tremendously.

THE FINANCIAL POSITION.

The new Minister of Finance has been only six weeks in office when he finds himself face to face with difficulties much greater than he anticipated or than the public had any reason to expect.

According to the opinion of some people it is an act of high treason on the part of Dr. Romero to make known the lamentable condition of the finances, as if any good could result from trying to mystify the public. It is impossible to set the finances in order until we have a clear statement of what the country owes, and what resources it can dispose of. When the Moratorio arrangement of January 1891 was concluded it would have been better if the Minister had adopted a course similar to that of Dr. Romero and struck a national balance-sheet, in which case Congress would perhaps have hesitated before acceding to so impossible a convention.

The difficulties in which we are at present involved are aggravated by the position of the National Bank, and hence the convenience of liquidating that unfortunate concern is apparent to everybody. In the debate on Thursday in Congress it was stated that the bank holds bills in its portfolio to the prodigious amount of 300,000,000$, of which it is expected that 50 per cent will prove bad debts. If the statement in question be true the assets of the bank would reach 150,000,000$, but the general conviction in Buenos Ayres is that the bills are for the most part utterly valueless. On this point we read in the Nacion that Dr. Romero on last Wednesday required from the chairman Dr. Pinedo, a list of the persons indebted to the bank, but the latter refused to give that information, on the grounds that it was contrary to banking rules. A similar request was made some years ago, and refused on the same plea, but the bank was not then bankrupt, and we cannot see why it should now be denied to the Government, especially as the Government is practically owner of the bank. The balance-sheet of national finances published yesterday by the Contaduria Nacional shews that the Nat. Bank owes the Government 71,500,000$ currency and 2,300,000$ gold, in all 78,000,000$ currency, a sum equal to the total revenue of the Republic; and yet when the Minister enquires who are debtors to the bank he is refused the information, on a point of banking etiquette.

In order to rescue the country from the many difficulties that surround it the Finance Minister needs the earnest support of all parties, but on the contrary he finds himself thwarted by Congress and severaly censured by a certain section of the public. The secret of the opposition is that we have still among us a strong party in favor of inflation of currency, free banks, unlimited discounts and periodical issues of shinplasters. This party would willingly expel Dr. Romero from office, to introduce a successor of opposite views in banking and finance. They have begun to circulate rumors of his intended resignation, but we hope that Dr. Romero will hold firmly to his post, knowing that he has the confidence of the President and of the great majority of people in Buenos Ayres.

We subjoin a condensed statement of the report of the Contaduria Nacional published yesterday (gold items being added to paper-money ones at the rate of 270):—

Assets.	$ currency.
Cash &c. on hand..	2,050,000
Bills recoverable...	1,680,000
National bank.....	77,800,000
Bad debts.....	16,880,000
Total.....	98,410,000

The first and second items consitute the real assets, say $3,730,000 currency the rest being in reality waste paper.

Expenditure.

The various public departments will require nearly $29,000,000 currency to meet current expenses from Oct. 12th to Dec. 31st 1892.

	$ currency.
Interior.....	3,565,000
Foreign Affairs.....	88,000
Finance.....	18,220,000
Army and Navy....	4,705,000
Schools etc.....	2,012,000
Total.....	28,590,000

The above, meantime, includes $2,175,000 gold for interest on Free-banking bonds held by the Government, which may be, therefore, wiped out, leaving the actual obligations about 22,500,000$, to meet which the Treasury has only $3,730,000.

If the Government could dispose of the 78 millions due to the Treasury by the Nat. Bank there would be enough to pay everything up to 1st January 1893, and even leave a surplus, but this item may be written off as a bad debt, instead of making it figure among the assets of this much-plundered uation.

THE NIEDERLEIN EXPEDITION.

THE ALTO PARANA AND IGUAZU.

Leaves from a diary.

On the 8th October we said good-bye to Corrientes and its perfumed groves. Our little steamer La Paz headed North and we rattled away towards the meeting of the Great Waters. The October sun hung over us like a sword of fire whilst a merciless glare flamed from the immense expanse of water, fringed by the Corrientes hills to the right and the dark, low, and cool-looking Chaco virgin forest to the left. What a luxury an iced drink would have been, though dashed off on the top of the La Paz's boiler!

A few hours' steaming brings us to the Tres Bocas where the Alto Paraná and the Paraguay rivers meet and flow into the Paraná. Here we are 1000 miles from the ocean, yet such is the vast expanse of water around us that to all intents and purposes we are in an inland ocean of sweet water. We turn the La Paz's nose sharply to the East, and drop anchor at Paso de la Patria, the famous pass where the Allies crossed into Paraguay, leaving 20,000 men on the field. Sauntering in the vicinity of the town, about six squares from the port, I inspected a sandy mound, where thousands of human bones were bleaching in the sub-tropical sun. The neighbours informed me that on this spot five thousand Porteños fell: children have knocked the skulls to pieces; bones lay scattered in all directions. Verily, warriors deserve a better grave. I am told that in times of drought, when the surrounding morass dries up, the bed is white with bleaching bones of the many scores of thousands who fell between here and Humaitá. Strange, that industry and lucre have not profaned these remains; there was a time when cargoes of these bones were supposed to have been sold in the Liverpool market.

At Paso de la Patria we cut wood for our engines and next morning we steamed up to Itati; this place was founded in the middle of the 16th century and boasts a pretty church It drags a lazy life in in the lap of sub-tropical beauty. Peace and indolence with remnants of a historic and active past stamp these lovely shores amongst the most beauteous in the world. We steam rapidly past Itabaité and drop anchor next morning at Ituzaingó, known by the old Jesuit name of Caraguatay.

We succeeded in making a goodly collection of rural products, such as tobacco, cotton, maize, coffee, mandioca, pea-nuts for the Chicago Exhibition. We started on an exploration towards the legendary Iberá lake, still untrodden by the foot of man. It was impossible to get even a glimpse of the mysterious lake, owing to the leagues of morass that intervene—a dreary waste of grass and water with oases of wood. Many who attempted to tear the veil off this mysterious lake, and invaded the morass with canoes, never came back. The belief that the lake is fed by sub-terraneous channels of the Rio Alto Parana or Rio Uruguay is plausible, but one can hardly believe that there are large islands in the lake inhabited and stocked, as nobody has ever reached or even seen these islands, their inhabitants or their fauna.

We left Ituzaingó in the afternoon and reached at daylight the famous Apipé rapids and dropped anchor at the Isla del Diablo. These reefs have a length of a mile: the noble river boils over them in terrible eddies and at a great rate. This is the only obstacle in this magnificent river which is here seven miles wide with the lovely islands of Apipé and Yaciretá. As the sun rose on this memorable day, 12th October, the pressure in our engines had been raised from 80 to 160 lbs to crawl through the nine to ten mile current. Our pilot Rodriguez seems to know every rock and eddy in this dangerous place, and in less than an hour we had dodged the reefs and overcome the current.

Two hours later we were rattling past the Jupiter islands, also a somewhat dangerous passage. In the afternoon we reached Posadas, the capital of the Misiones territory. Here we flashed a congratulatory telegram to the new Argentine President, Dr. Luis Saenz Peña.

OUR PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent)

Oct. 29th.

It is to be hoped, notwithstanding the notorious blundering connected with the Carmaux colliery strike—now nearly three months old, that the 3,000 men will resume work, and so terminate great misery for themselves and their families. In 1848 the workmen of Paris said, we have endured three months starvation to defend the Republic. The Carmaux colliers have sustained a like period of hardship to defend universal suffrage, for beyond doubt the cause of the quarrel was the manager, knowing the wishes of the Monarchial Company, dismissing a workman that had been elected by his comrades for local mayor. Later a riot ensued; the manager was menaced, and a dozen of the rioters sent to prison. The republican party took up the defence of the men, alleging the strike had been forced upon them by the company dismissing the mayor from the mines without legal cause and in violation of their bond.

It was proposed in the earlier stage of the strike to submit the difference to arbitration. The chairman of the company peremptorily and haughtily refused this compromise. When the parliament re-assembled and public opinion was demanding the cassation of the company's mine on the ground of their not exploiting it, the company yielded, and both sides accepted the services of M. Loubet, the premier and home minister as unofficiously an arbitrator. In all arbitration both sides should be prepared for a give and take, and to stand by the decision. The company did so, but the men have not, as their advocates, M. Clemenceau and two others, assert M. Loubet broke faith with them. The latter lays the cause of the quarrel at the door of the manager; the latter is not to be revoked, while the mayor after being formally re-engaged as a miner, is to resign. The imprisoned rioters are to be pardoned—but not amnestied which is an important distinction; the former is a black mark permanently attached to your testimonials; the latter sponges out the judicial conviction. The company refused to employ all the legally pardoned. Hence, why the 3,000 strikers are dissatisfied with the arbitration. But public opinion rules, that the men must abide by Mr. Loubet's decision.

In Belgium they managed these things differently; there the courts of conciliation take in hand labor and capital disputes while in the smouldering stage, and generally succeed in making matters satisfactory all round. Deputy Lockroy has just carried his bill through the Chamber for constituting courts of arbitration composed of an equal number of employées and employed, with the right of final decision resting with all of the ordinary judges. But there is no means save the force of public opinion to execute the finding of the court. Besides, how compel 3,000 strikers for example to fall in, after their fall out? The farmers of Central France have, without drum or trumpet, adopted of late syndicate courts to arrange their disputes without going to law; the friendly judges are elected every three months by the farmers. The first object to attain is to bring disputants into an amicable state of mind: that attained all the rest is plain sailing.

The Franco-Swiss reciprocal treaty does not resemble those treaties executed with other countries, where the conditions do not call in question the rates of the new tariff. The Swiss negotiations strike at a reduction of the minimum scale, a concession the ultra-protectionists will not as much as listen to, and as they are in a majority in the Chamber, they are not inclined to demolish the work they have been two years arduously occupied to erect. Hence, there is no solution till the advent of the next Chamber, to be elected in October 1893. So whether the revenue continues to decline, or whether Switzerland withdraws her political benevolence, will not influence the majority. Switzerland will not admit French products across her frontier, save at excluding rates, the moment the Chamber rejects the treaty; but Belgium, Germany and England will occupy the market vacated by France, and political follows commercial friendship.

Of course, having put their hand to the plough in Dahomey, the French will not look back, but Colonel Dodds, the Commander of the small expedition against King Behaugin, not having sufficient troops, has to suspend his final attack against Behaugin. France to all appearances will never learn the necessity of seriously preparing for little wars; she has somewhat got into her head that she has only to put foot on a new territory, when the natives will at once 'kotou' her. At present savage rulers have been taught the importance of the instruments of modern war, and worse, how to employ them. So civilized states will not be left the monopoly of scientific slaughtering machinery. Opinion is anxious to know what has the French mission to Fez, gained by throwing sheep's eyes at the Sultan of Morroco. Muley-Hassan having re-occupied Jonat, on southern Algeria, with the consent of France, it is stated, after the latter claimed that region as an outpost of Algeria, juggles quidnuncs. Whatever concessions in trade or territorial privileges France has squeezed from the Sultan, the other European powers will demand, and likely if refused, take. Then Señor Emilio Castelar indulges in monthly-gun warnings, that Spain regards Morocco as a sort of 'Continental' Cuba in expectation; must have it all—"the whole hog or one." To project, to divide the Saltanate between France and Spain is a day-dream. As regards the state of Tonkin security does not appear to be settling down in that protectorate; the more the pirates are extinguished the more numerous they become. Some Cassandras predict that the yellow race will shoal into Australia by Port Darwin; the Celestials have never had a predilection for maritime invasions, and less so when Australian Cruisers will be on the look out; they prefer overland routes. Tonkin has ever been the historical raiding ground for the "heathen Chinee."

There is not any serious fighting between the Stonewall and the Sloughed-off royalists. The former claim to be sound "papalius," while remaining orthodox monarchists: the secessionists are not enthusiastically welcomed by the moderate republicans; as for the radicals, they laugh at the conversions; do not believe, they assert, that the leopard can change its spots. However, St. Paul was converted on the road to Damascus, and died a sound divine. The next general elections will be a sort of clearance sale of politicians of all the schools: the new aspirants are agreed that it is full time to turn out the "old Gangs."

Burial in the Pantheon is likely to prove a political hornet's nest. The Government had decreed, in a bill to be sanctioned by Parliament, the transport of the remains of Renan, Michelet and Quinet to that destined Temple of Fame. Quick as thought, the public prepared lists of other celebrities worthy of the Valhambra. The combination of renowns is incongruity itself. Deputy Leon Say has put the match to the mine by proposing that the Parliament vote Thiers also as meriting a Pantheon recognition; he does not demand his remains to be interred in that poly-vault structure; the authorisation to place a memorial slab to the statesman's memory will suffice. Of course the proposition has roused the hatred of the Communists and their on-the-sly sympathizers, to white heat; Paris so detests the memory of "the liberator of the territory," that the Municipal Council does not baptize a street after him, or grant a site for his statue. The same hatred, only a few degrees less, is nursed against Gambetta Says Rochefort: "admit into the Pantheon the remains of the guillotined assassins Pranzini and Anasty, rather than Thiers." After this we may ring down the curtain.

The French deplore that Germany has at last superseded France in importations into Argentina, where Germany now ranks after England—that is first, in selling her manufactures. But France finds consolation in the fact that Argentina exports more to France than to any other country. Accepting this result with the importance naturally attached to it, France ought to remember, the United Kingdom takes double the quantity of products from France that France takes from England.

The advanced republicans have certainly opened fire against the increasing occult action of President Carnot in politics. He is upbraided with having entered into negotiations with the Vatican over the heads of his official advisers, to win the influence of the Pope for the republic. He is now charged with working in with the royalist republicans, to secure their junction with the Moderates, to rein in the Radicals. This looks like preparations for the presidential election in 1894. What public opinion regrets is the pressure put on His Holiness by the Italian clergy, to prevent him from naming more French Cardinals, so as to bar out the possibility of a future Pope being chosen by the foreign Cardinals from among their body.

The Post Office and Telegraph clerks are again about taking to the war path—they are 3,000 strong in Paris—because their salaries have not been augmented as promised, and the Director General of Posts opposes his subordinates forming themselves into a Syndicate. The clerks failed in their first attempt a few years ago to unionize.

In the pile of reforms down for legislative carrying is one for permitting the municipalities of France—of which there are 36,000—to vote if they please a salary to their mayors and councillors: Paris exercises that right, though it is illegal. The choice of Universal Suffrage cannot be free if the man selected cannot fill the office for want of means. Deputies are paid 25 francs a day for their services to the State; why not mayors?

AUSTRALIA IN 1892.

Mr. Hayter affords an interesting measure of comparison in the Australasian statistics for the year 1891, to which official publication has recently been given. He brings us up to date as it were, and enables us to obtain an accurate idea of our relative position. In population New South Wales has assumed the lead, and considering the ratio of territory, it is not likely that as far as Victoria is concerned the order will undergo change. It is not easy to understand why there should be more marriages and fewer births in Victoria than in New South Wales. Nor is it a pleasing testimony to our sanitary surroundings that the record of deaths should be so much higher on this side of the Murray. Excepting West Australia, which hardly comes into the comparison, Victoria has the highest death rate of any of the Australasian colonies. There is a wonderful difference between 10 deaths in the 1,000 in New Zealand and over 16 in Victoria. The figures given concerning the revenue, taxation, expenditure and public debt afford material for interesting contrast. Taking these totals we learn that the public debt of Australasia is approaching very nearly £200,000,000. The total expenditure exceeds the total revenue by £1,150,000, and of the £30,000,000 of revenue raised rather more than one-third is derived from taxation. Queensland heads the list in the proportion of debt to the population, and is followed by South Australia and New Zealand. In the development of the agricultural industry Victoria takes the lead, both in the extent of acreage under cultivation, and still more in the value of produce obtained. In the productiveness of its soil New Zealand, however, holds an unsurpassed position, due largely to the advantage of a moister climate. The importance of the pastoral industry is conveyed in the imposing magnitude of the figures which represent the totals of live stock. In Australasia taken altogether there are over 124,000,000 sheep, over 11,000,000 cattle, and over 1,750,000 horses, while the pigs exceed 1,000,000. New South Wales is richest in sheep and horses. Queensland in cattle and New Zealand in pigs. Work is being pushed on more extensively in West Australia than in any other of the colonies, owing to the operation of the land grant system.

BRITISH HOSPITAL.

Mr. Editor,

From facts that have come to our knowledge in connection with the proposed additions and repairs to the British Hospital we are desirous of calling the attention of the British community generally and those who, like ourselves, are subscribers to that institution, to the manner in which the proposed carrying out of such works has been conducted.

In the first place, they had to obtain professional assistance, and their selection fell upon a young architect, who no doubt is competent to draw up the plans and specifications (his services, we presume, being paid for), but whose method of calling for tenders we consider peculiar, viz.: to select privately three or four contractors and request them to send in tenders, one of which we may presume would be accepted. Now we, as an English firm, who have carried out, and are carrying out, works at least quite as great in importance as that of the British Hospital, offered in writing to furnish the plans, &c., free of cost, and would have executed the work with a very small margin of profit, in consideration of the charitable object in view; but when the time came we were not even asked to submit a tender, and our application was, consequently, not entertained, the reason given being the curious one of our firm being unknown!

We therefore think that the method adopted in obtaining tenders, looked at from an economical point of view, has not been the correct one, and that it would have been much better for the Committee to have called for tenders by publicly advertising in the newspapers (which would have cost nothing) as is done in similar cases in other parts of the world. By so doing publicity would have been general instead of, as in the present case, confined to a select few.

We are
Yours faithfully,
Chas. Fitzwalter & Co.

GOOD NEWS?

Mr. Editor,

The above is your comment in the Editor's Table yesterday (27th) on what Engineer Dalclout says "that the Martin Garcia Channel dredging will be finished in January."

Well, the city of Buenos Ayres may have reason in the future to reverse in toto your comment, and for the following reasons. All owining that a good deep water channel has been opened out on the Banda Oriental coast, the increased volume of water which flows through it will have the effect of lowering the water on this coast of Buenos Ayres and causing the great Palmas mud flat to silt up more each year. That immense body of mud extends from the front of the city to the North of Las Palmas and so far North-East as Martin Garcia. An increased current on the opposite coast means a decreased and sluggish one on this coast, and opens up in an acute form the grave sanitary question. For the past five years the Government has been hard at work in creating docks which will become stagnant basins of water: each one has its corresponding swamp alongside of it, in the form of partly reclaimed lands, from which arise the ill odours that offend the smell and pollute the air that we breathe in every day city life. These docks, which are very excellent in construction in themselves and do credit to the contractor, should never have been made, as, according to the late Minister of the Interior's report, to keep a very imperfect entrance channel to them open costs some 600,000$ per year, and say as much more when the North channel is made, and these expensive dredging works can never cease if the docks have to be kept open.

What will it be 25 years hence? The 40,000,000 dollars expended on them has to be supplemented by another 30,000,000 dollars to keep open the two channels. This great sum might have been saved, had the Wheeler Project been accepted; nay yet the Las Palmas Channel might be opened out with great advantage to the existing Docks and to the sanitary condition of the town, giving us a deep and swift stream in front of the City. What Capt. Eads did for New Orleans, Mr. Wheeler can do for Buenos Aires; Eads had to contend against the whole of the Government engineering talent of the United States, who were against his project; happily he got the sanction of Congress, got to work, and in four years he had cleared away the bar of the Mississippi and given a depth of 29 feet where 15 only existed before; and, although Mr. Wheeler's project would be of the greatest possible benefit to the city present and future, costing the Nation nothing, a most persistent obstruction has been met with to defeat it. I affirm it is against the best interests of the city of Buenos Ayres to create a deep channel and rapid current on the opposite Oriental coast.

Nauticus.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Affairs in general were again tolerably lively and pleasant yesterday, with plenty of rumours of a financial and political kind. Meteorologically it was the hottest day yet, and the temperature was also somewhat raised by a fire in Mr. Cranwell's Pomito Factory in Calle Solis, where some slight damage was done. We really thought the Pomito was a thing of the past, but it appears to be alive still. We do remember 18 or 20 years ago when the Pomito was king in fashionable Porteño life; and Mr. Oi Polloi never dared to venture into the Corso in Calle Florida. How times have changed since then. Alas and alack; we'd wish those times back.

The Deputies no-quoed yesterday owing to the intense heat. Fun is expected in the Senate to-day when the Upper House will go into Committee on the Tax Laws, and "heckle" the Finance Minister if he says Boo.

Again yesterday the Dirty Water Legacy was to the fore. Not a drop to be had from the pipes in several quarters of the city for several hours. Why the three D's families do not take the precaution to store some water while the flow is on we are at a loss to explain.

The tickets out for next week's Lottery have been withdrawn. Not properly printed we hear, and prizes badly distributed. New tickets will be out at once, so those who have dreamt of a number need not despair.

Dear STANDARD,

In my letter to you a few days ago I did not mention anything about false five-dollar notes, but said that it was the five-pound notes, which are for sale in every money-changer's window, and many of them would not be received in England.

Yours,
Keep Your Eyes Open.

The following eleven will represent the Lomas Athletic Club in their Cricket Match against the London Bank C.C. to-morrow at Hurlingham:—P. Bridger, H. Cornwall, P. M. Rath, A. Anderson, H. Anderson, J. D. Frost, F. H. Jacobs, F. Minturn, S. Gibson, W. G. Cowes, J. F. Kahl. Train leaves Central Station at 9.45 a.m.

The Mar del Plata trip on the 8th of December will turn out a bigger success than what Mr. Attwell anticipated. Everybody wants to go, and we are asked by him to state that he can only accept 300 pasengers, being understood that the accommodation in the Grand Hotel comprises, coffee and bread and butter in the morning, two meals with wine, in the usual style, and bed. Also that in the new Bathing House, Perla del Norte the passengers will have a free dip. We'll be there.

There'll be a flare up in the Queen province some fine day when least expected. The scandalous state of things in Bolivar is still in full blast. Not only this, but armed bands are making their appearance in many parts of the province.

The two Health Boards are at it again about quarantine matters, although it is only a week since they fell on each other's necks and swore eternal friendship. Queer Boards and bores.

On Wednesday evening the marriage of Mr. Thomas Hornsby, of the Rosario Railway to Miss Mary Conroy took place at the Merced Church in the presence of a large number of friends. Canon Rasore performed the ceremony, and congratulated the young couple wishing them every happiness. The bride was dressed in cream-coloured satin, and wore a diamond brooch, a present from the bridegroom. Mr. Patrick Lawler, estanciero, Zapiola, cousin to the bride, gave her away. Miss Maggie Lawler was principal bridesmaid, and was assisted by Miss Molly Brown. The bridesmaids were dressed in pale yellow tulle. Miss Maud Hawkins attended on the bride as train bearer. Mr. Webb and Mr. Williams acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony, a number of friends went to the Mercier Restaurant, where a sumptuous supper was served. Mr. Wibberley, (Sub-manager of the Rosario Railway), proposed the health of the happy couple in a felicitous and humorous speech. He said he had known the bridegroom for about 20 years and that Mr. Hornsby came of one of the finest old families in England. Mr. Hornsby responded in a brilliant speech which was much applauded. Mr. Miguel J. Byrne then proposed the health of the charming bridesmaids, which was drunk with three times three. Mr. Webb responded to the toast. The honeymoon will be passed at Mar del Plata. The bride received a large number of costly presents.—Herald.

There is an important letter for C. Fitzwalter lying at this office.

The revelations in the Editorial Bus of Paris in connection with that Man-in-the-Moon scheme the Panama Canal show that there is something shamefully rotten in the state of the Third French Republic; and "quien sabe" what the political consequences may eventually be. The French public have taken the punishment of the guilty papers into their own hands, by refusing to buy or read them. President Carnot declares that the affair must be probed to the bitter end; and if so, more prison accommodation will be required in gay and festive Paris.

"Another farce or another calamity" is the stamp put on President Herrera's announcement that he is cudgelling his brains to get another strikingly brilliant financial scheme out of them. The unfortunate President ought by this time to be pumped quite dry in the financial scheme sense, as, since he entered office he has tried his hand at more than a score of projects, every one of which has come to the ground.

More queer geography:—"Live and Learn is a good old proverb, and our stock of knowledge was surprisingly increased yesterday by the receipt of a newspaper directed to the Montevideo Times, Montevideo, Paraguay. If it had come from benighted Europe we could have forgiven a little geographical haziness, but as it happened it came from almost a neighbour, on the same continent, Valparaiso to wit. Nor is the offence peculiar, for the Panama Star received by the same mail slips into a very similar error, for under the heading Herrera in Danger, it gives a telegram from Asuncion, Paraguay, saying there was a plot on foot there to kill the President."—M. V. T.

Rothschild is figuring as poorly in the silver question as he did in the Argentine Moratorium. The London dailies and financial papers scout his proposals. All the gold idols with clay feet will be on the broad of their backs on the ground before this century of shoddy and sham, steel and stealing comes to an end.

Another wife has been butchered by her husband. Rosario is the "locus in quo." The murderer is a Police Commissary!!

"Do you see that remarkably tall young man over there, Miss Keenwit? Well, he was originally intended for the Church." "Indeed. I should have supposed him to have been intended for the steeple."

We are pleased to learn from Montevideo that Mr. John Jackson has made a sudden rally and is expected to be out of danger in a few days.

O'Kill, the greatest ventriloquist of the Age, will leave next week for Montevideo, where they are eagerly awaiting him. If there are any people in town who have not heard him—and they must be few, considering the furore he has created—they should avail of the few remaining days of his stay in this city. The zarzuela company at the Zarzuela Theatre with him is also an excellent one, and the theatre itself is the coolest and nicest place of amusement in town.

Here's something very interesting about king Behanzin of Dahomey, who has just been licked into his own Sunday cocked-hat by that distinguished Scotchman General Dodds, who has relatives in this country, we believe:—"According to M. d'Octon, the King of Dahomey, Behanzin, is not as bad as he is painted; he is known among his subjects as "the Egg of the World," just as Louis XIV. was styled "the Sun King," and the latter received in 1670 an ambassador from his cousin Andanzon I. King of Dahomey. Behanzin wears no jewelry, he is simply a masher, with a weakness for perfumes, as had the First Napoleon in a word "he smells of musk and insolence." But then Behanzin is not a tiny sovereign like Dinah Salifon who reigns over 800 subjects in Morocco leather boots, the cast off canonicals of a Spanish bishop, and a judge's hat with a plume of feathers; nor does he resemble his brother monarch the King of Samor, whose crown is a fine man's hat, and sceptre, a beadle's baton. Behanzin's bodyguard consists wholly of Amazons before the door of each room in the palace, one of the lady beef-eaters reclines at full length. The Queen, called Dada, has for duty to present his majesty with his pipe; ladies of honor light his pipe and present the spittoon. It was the custom when a chief died to immolate a son or a daughter on his tomb. Behanzin in place of a child, substitutes a goat. In time the annual human sacrifice will also cease. Good news for land grabbers of the Dark Continent; the King of Samor is prepared to sell the whole of Africa, Morocco, Lake Tchad and Egypt included, for two barrels of fire water."

Mr. Smith (to Mrs. Parvenu, who has been telling him about her new house): "I suppose you will have dumb waiters in the house?" Mrs. P.: "No, I shant. I had a deaf cook once and I vowed then never to have another crippled servant."

The City Fathers have only five things to tackle in their extra session, and we hope they may got through them with patriotic alacrity; though how deeply we shall miss the perusal and publication of their wildly interesting proceedings none but ourself can imagine.

There is deep depression in unwashed circles, as the Health Committee of the Corporation has ordered baths to be erected in all the "conventillos" in town, and the lodgers are afraid that the Wise Men intend to pass a Compulsory Washing ukase. They can't. In no country in the world can a man (not a convict) be forced to wash himself against his will.

We are requested by Mrs. Michael Mulhall to acknowledge with thanks a very handsome present from Mr. Santiago Coleman to the Boys' Orphanage, namely, a superb wall-map of Scotland and another of Asia, beautifully mounted on roliers.

There will a Cricket Match to day (Saturday) on the Quilmes Club ground at Bernal, between the Junior Quilmes Cricket Club and the St. Lawrence's team from Belgrano. Play will commence at two o'clock.

By George! The Immigration figures are beginning to look like old times, and our Italian friends in Genoa are evidently convinced that the Argentine crisis is over. In the first eleven months of this year 82,382 souls and bodies arrived and 51,280 went away. The arrivals look beautiful and inspire us with our quondam enthusiasm; but the departures spoil the picture. Nevertheless it is a great improvement on last year, when the balance was over 20,000 on the wrong side of the book, and looked almost as bad as the National Balance-sheet.

Merchant: "What's the matter with your writing this morning—new pen?" Book-keeper: "No, sir." "New ink?" "No, sir." "What, then?" "Neuralgia."

President Peña sent his aides-de-camp yesterday on board the Italian flag-ship in Dock Three, to return the visit paid to H. E. last week by the commander and officers of the squadron.

The happiest man in town—far happier than any love-floored bridegroom—is the owner of the Café San Martin in Calle Cangallo. He pulled off the $100,000 "integro" in Thursday's Lottery. The width which his circle of friends has suddenly assumed has so startled him that streaks of grey appeared in his wig yesterday morning.

A Point in Husbandry.—"Which weeds are the easiest to kill?" asked young Flickers of a farmer. "Widow's weeds," replied the farmer. "You only have to say "wilt thou" and they wilt."

The performance in the Odeon to-night is for the benefit of the Empresa Cattaneo, which well deserves a full house. The play selected is full of drawing power, Beaumarchais' immortal comedy "The Marriage of Figaro."

Beware of false $5 notes. Never before has there been so much of this rag money going from pocket to pocket as now.

The summer concerts in the Hotel of Delights at Adrogue will commence to-morrow night, under Furlotti's able direction. The worst of summer is that there is such a confounded lot of the two M's—mosquitoes and music—about it.

Amongst the passengers for Europe per French mail steamer leaving on the 5th is Enrique Hermitte, for some time one of Mr. Hoskold's assistants in the Mining department. Mr. Hermitte leaves for Paris to conclude his studies as mining-engineer, one of the most useful but neglected branches of science in this country.

The preliminary show of articles for the Chicago Exhibition is at length complete, Mr. Julio Victorica and staff having labored night and day to have them artistically arranged in Señor Duran's spacious halls, corner of Artes and Piedad. General Clarke, representative of the Edison Electric Light Company, contracted yesterday to illuminate the entire show with 200 incandescent lamps.

The Operai Italiano is going to give all its subscribers who pay up 100 visiting pasteboards as a Christmas Box. We couldn't afford it; nor would all the card in the country suffice to supply our subscribers who pay up. A subscriber who is "morose" about paying for his newspaper should not have visiting cards, as he is without the pale.

Telegrams from London received to-day announce a falling tendency in prices at the Colonial wool sales. Telegrams from Antwerp were also unfavorable.

The arrivals of wool were large this morning, but little business was done and prices fell. Buyers are holding back under lower limits.

Our colleague Tribuna was in everybody's hands this afternoon, as it contained a table and exhaustive statement of the service of the public debt.

The gold market ruled weak at the second ring owing to the news that Minister Romero had no intention of resigning. About nine hundred thousand dollars were sold, the premium closing at 479 % for to-morrow and 178.50% for the end of the month; the rate for January was quoted at 178 %. Patriotic Bonds closed steady at 74 and Internal Bonds at 68.80. La Plata Cedulas fell to 29.70 to 29.90. A few shares of the Old Gas Company changed hands at 92 and of the Spanish Bank at 109½.

Cheques of the National Bank were sold to-day at 17 per cent discount: the 12 per cent rate generally quoted is merely for small sums.

Telegrams were received from London to-day with the following quotations:—

The Banco de la Bolsa, one of the wrecks of our crisis, will pay a third dividend of 5% to its unfortunate shareholders on the 5th inst. This bank at one time did such an enormous business that its shares were at a great premium, and it was thought that it would take from the other private banks all the good business of the Bolsa; it was started by good men and the shares were all subscribed for. It has proved the greatest market delusion of the crisis. Another terrible delusion was the Mutual Gas Company; the shares were all well placed, the capital subscribed, the usina and other buildings all contracted for, the establishment was finished and it was admitted to be the grandest, the largest and best gas establishment in the whole country. Nevertheless, for the shareholders it has proved a total loss, the premises have passed into the possession of the Argentine Gas Company who paid for them in their shares. The business has proved even a worse one for the shareholders than the Banco de la Bolsa.

The list of Argentine exports is daily extending. Yesterday we published a consignment of Canuelas butter to the London market; to-day we announce a shipment of San Juan wine to Santos, in Brazil, and we may notify our Rosario correspondent, W. P., that for the last 30 or 40 years they make excellent wine on the Rio Negro, and that his dream of drinking in years to come good wine on Mr. Kincaid's estancia shows his great ignorance of the delicious bocoly made every year for the last 50 years on the Rio Negro. The Chocoly wine very much resembles the Vesuvian wine, which is a weak white wine, and people who are accustomed to it prefer it to all others; in our memorable ascent of Mount Vesuvius with Don Domingo Chichero our party, including the guides, finished off 32 bottles before we came down from the mountain; we agree with Mr. Perkins that in a very few years wine will be one of our staple exports.

The saladeristas of Montevideo are doing a tremendous business this season. The killing up to the 28th of November amounts to 10,576 head against 4,782 for same time last year. This shows that, although in the streets of Montevideo everything is dull, and not the slightest movement on the slopes of the Cerro, there is more business going on than in any previous year.

The new project about the Provincial Mortgage Bank is the talk of the whole Bolsa; a private meeting of the Deputies was held in La Plata yesterday and a majority secured in favor of the scheme, which runs as follows:—

Art. 1st.—4 years moratorium granted during which time the bank shall not emit bonos nor pay the amortization and interest on Cedulas.

Art. 2nd—Up to the 1st July, 1893, the bank will receive bonos in payment of back services on Cedulas without fine; passing that time, debtors come under the law of last July.

Art. 3rd—In all cases of payment of mortgages the amortization must be paid in Cedulas, the commission 1% in cash and the rin bonos.

Art. 4th—Up to July 1893 no more foreclosures.

Sr. Huni of the leading firm of Dreyfus and Company, who has arrived back from Europe after a pleasant vacation trip, was warmly welcomed on Change by his numerous friends. Mr. Joseph A. Frias, of the firm of Frias and Galio, Tucuman, took leave of his friends on 'Change to-day. He sails for Europe in the Ciudad de Cadiz. Mr. Gustave Lahusen has entered as partner in the great exporting firm of Lahusen and Company.

The sale of the house, No. 452 Venezuela, for $48,300 is reported; also the house Calle Chacabuco, 618, for $19,600. Both these properties fetched more than $5,000 over the valuation. Also the property in Calle Santa Fé, 1848; valuation $65,000, sold for $86,000.

The Berlin bankers who, during the administration of Juarez Celman, advanced to the National Bank $12,000,000 gold taking as guarantee the bono general for the Lucas Gonzalez railway loan, the Government shares of the Central Argentine Railway and the National gold Cedulas which the bank bought so profusely in the market, come off about the best creditors in the country; they are to be paid in full with interest and commission at the rate of £50,000 a month, and the first payment is made now. It will take 4 years to pay them off. We call attention to this business owing to the fact that last month a large lot of Central Argentine shares were sold by the Baring syndicate, and parties here thought that these shares were the National Government shares, which was a mistake, as it turns out now that the Berlin syndicate of ban ke hold the National Government shares along with the other stocks as guarantee for their loan. The Banco de la Nacion took exchange yesterday and to-day in the market for £50,000 to remit to Berlin for the first instalment, and every month a similar amount has to be remitted until the account is liquidated.

The publication in this morning's Prensa, respecting a letter said to have been written by Dr. Lopez, ex-Minister of Hacienda, to Mr. Hansen, also ex-Minister of Hecienda, gave rise to great remark on Change, and many people ask what are the disclosures of which Dr. Lopez complains. Everyone knew that the Government held 100,000,000 of the 4½% bonds. The story goes that Dr. Romero has asked for a list of the debtors of the National Bank who pay nothing on account of their indebtedness, and that the directors have declined to give the Minister the required list, as they say that such information violates bank secrecy.

The sale of the Pasage Maximo Paz, in La Plata, assets of the Banco Constructor, for $150,000 is reported; Mr. Tornquist the buyer.

Dr. Nicolas Achaval will be the new president of the Caja de Conversion, Dr. Cardenas having resigned.

Messrs. Alberto Gache and Ramon Castro, so favourably known in journalistic and commercial circles, have sent round circulars announcing that they will edit and publish a new weekly paper under the style La Agricultura, specially devoted to rural interests. We may say that the publication will meet a long-felt want in agricultural circles and is bound to be a success in such able hands. The agricultural interest in this republic to-day is very great and it has little or no representation in the press of this capital. We wish the promoters and editors success in their enterprise which deserves the wide support of the market and produce "gremio."

Paper Money.

Projectors every now and then start up with plans for curing all the economical evils of society by means of an unlimited issue of inconvertible paper. There is, in truth, a great charm in the idea. To be able to defray the expenses of government without taxation, and, in fine, to make the fortune of the whole community, is a brilliant prospect, when once a man is capable of believing that printing a few characters on bits of paper will do it. The philosopher's stone could not be expected to do more.

The substitution of Paper for metallic currency is a national gain: any further increase of Paper beyond this is but a form of robbery.—John Stuart Mill on Inconvertible Paper Currency.

Paper Money properly means paper made legal tender, and not legally convertible into gold, or anything else, at the pleasure of the holders, or at any given period. No part whatever of the value of such paper money is derived from confidense. It circulates because it is made legal tender, and because the use of a circulating medium is indispensable; and its value, supposing the demand to be constant, is in all cases inversely as the quantity in circulation.—

Important

SALE OF LAND IN MENDOZA

One of the largest sales of first class land ever offered to the public.

The portion of land offered contains 71 square leagues, 625 thousandth, or 179 062 hectares of rich pasture land in Mendoza, in the department of 25 de Mayo (late San Rafael), bounded by the river Diamante and surrounded by large and important cattle establishments such as Dr. Jose Vicente Zapata, Segura, Comandante Salas, Calderon and others. The place contains large tracts of valuable woods. Situated only 10 leagues from the town of San Rafael in the direction of Buenos Ayres, within which area and bounded by both borders of the river, are situated the largest and most valuable rural establishments which this rich department possesses, such as Sres. D. Juan Francisco Garcia, Daniel Gonzalez, Cura Marcos, Fabian Correa, Ernesterio Garcia, Julio Balofel, Cuadro Nacional, Isaac Espinola, Pablo Zorilla, Arcadio Calderon and many others; there being also large and important mills worked by water-wheels which obtain their power from the same river.

The land marks are:—North by Estancia La Chica of Don Ludoro Calderon, Rosa Salomon, Augusto S. Gil. South: by the river Diamante, the "testamentaria" de Don Diego Alvear and an English Company. West: by D. Emilio Godoy and Engineer Rojas. East: by William Margau and Doña Nicolasa Ortega de Passo.

The land has been surveyed and land marked officially by the engineers P. N Ginnazu and E. Quiroga, by order of the judges of 1st instance, Drs. Orrego and Ruisuarez, with a railway in construction by Messrs. John G. Meiggs Son & Co, which runs across this fertile zone.

With $90,000 in Central Argentine Consolidated Bonds.

The land will be sold in large and small lots, with the lowermost base of 70 cents the hectare!!!

To be bought without cash!!

There are also large valleys and cañadons capable of holding abundant water from rain-falls, besides that which is found in the Laguna del Toro which is situated north and the river Diamante to the South. These lands have also an irrigation concession granted by the Government and embodied in the titles.

The land is rich with a heavy stratum of alluvial soil, and benign climate. It is situate in parallel 34 and 35 which is known to be the zone in which the vine grows most luxuriantly and yields most abundantly. The water on the land is all sweet and wholesome and the camps for the most part high. It may be noticed that the camps by which this is bounded and which are without any of the favourable conditions of this that is to say without a railway and without frontage to the river, have been recently sold for three times more than the price at which this is offered as a base of sale.

On Wednesday 14th and Thursday 15th of December

at 3 o'clock in the afternoon

In my rooms

566—PIEDAD—566

Buenos Ayres

I will proceed to sell by public auction these splendid camps in small and large lots at the very low base of 70 cents moneda nacional the hectare. As I have stated above these camps are hypothecated to the value of 90,000 Cedulas Nacionales C, which will be divided proportionally by the Bank to each buyer, or at option pay the Cedulas or continue them at the price in the Bolsa and current rate of the market the day before the signiture of the titles, so that with a very small disbursement of money or without any one can acquire excellent camps.

The sale will be effected in the order established ni the planswith option of taking one ormore lots.

In order that those who are interested in the purchase of these lands shall have an opportunity of going or sending to inspect the place and becoming convinced that the quality and value of them are as we stated these lands are now advertized much in advance of the sale.

The seller will assign in the titles the right of each buyer to the service of writer for irrigation and to the use of aqueducts to the camp without frontage on the river.

For plans and other data and to see and inspect the titles which are without flaw, having been grante by the Government to the actual owner and seller, at my office and sale-rooms 566 Piedad Buenos Aires.

Every buyer without exception will deposit 10 o|o on account of price when he signs the boleto.

Thank you Mr. «Standard» as you say «There need be no apprehension» of course it is understood if a man has a policy in La Porteña, which has paid more claims in the same time than ANY other Company and which has now had the ball opened for the Hail Storms of this season.

BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation. The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.

"In re" the will of the late Canon Luis A. Duteil, "ex-cura" of Dolores. On the above date. I will sell this property in compliance with the following:—

JUDICIAL EDICT. By order of the Civil Judge of First Instance, Dr. Diego Saavedra. It is made known that on Sunday 4th of December at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the public auctioneer, Charles Olmi, will sell by auction the property Calle Cerrito No. 86, corner of San Martin, which measures 70 yards front by 48 deep, 11 rooms, belonging to the heirs of the late Luis A. SPLENDID PROPERTY

A most comfortable palace which must be visited by all

877-MALABIA-877

(between Charcas and General Mansilla.)

11 1|2 yards front by 80 1|4 deep.

8 magnificent rooms, splendid bathrooms, 2 w.c., kitchen, coach house, stable, forage deposit, rolling ground, ample garden with summer room (glorieta), corridors, vestibule, plastered ceilings and boarded floors (in hard pitch pine), paved street, blind doors, gas and water pipe, 2 blocks from the important Santa Fe Boulevard, 6 from Palermo and 1 from the tram.

New house, admirably built, all in lime, beams of hard wood with entry for carriages, electric bells and all modern conveniences. The neighbourhood is aristocratic, the house is built on high land, dry, hygienic and is airy and well ventilated.

It is a comfortable palace.

It is mortgaged in $20,000 m/n legales in Cedulas C Nacionales, and that will be the upset price.

Splendid opportunity to obtain a really fine house, almost without any disbursement, to become proprietor without cash, as there are 25 years to pay the value of the Shares to the Bank in quarterly amortizations

On Sunday 4th of December

at 5 o'clock in the afternoon

I will sell by public auction by order of the owner who leaves the country, this grand property, with the lowermost upset price of the hypoteca which is as I say

20,000 Cedulas C Nationals.

Very seldom or never is offered to the public the sale of a property in such favourable conditions as this, to obtain a fine property without capital, and only because the owner has to leave the country.

Although unnecessary, I must say that the property will be sold for any offer exceeding the uprct price.

The house is occupied actually, but can be visited three days before the sale. I very much recommend intending purchaser to visit it carefully and examine the many conveniences it possesses. To see the deeds and Bank book apply at my offices
